

About Trish Berg

Trish's ministry is transforming lives through transparent faith. She is the author of 2 books: Rattled (Multnomah 2008) and The Great American Supper Swap (David C. Cook 2007); and co-author of 2 books: Mom, You Make a Difference (Revell 2005) and A Scrapbook of Christmas Firsts (Leafwood 2008) available in all Cracker Barrel stores by December 2010. She has extensive media experience and has been interviewed on ABC World News Tonight, Focus on the Family, Midday Connection, The Harvest Show, Crossroads Full Circle. She has been a feature speaker for Hearts at Home and MOPS International and enjoys speaking at women's retreats and conferences all over the country.

Trish connects with over 3,000 families daily through her website, blog and followers on Facebook and Twitter. Her syndicated newspaper column (Graphic Publications) circulates weekly to over 80,000 families in northern Ohio, and at www.Christian-mommies.com. Trish has an MBA in marketing and she looks forward to partnering with a publisher to market her book in unique ways. She and her husband, Mike (a school teacher and baseball coach) stay busy raising their four children (ages 7-14) on their 200 acre beef cattle farm in the heart of Ohio.

What People Are Saying

"I just want to let you know how much you've touched my life... and we have never met. I just finished reading Rattled, and it has changed me." ~Joyce Miller

I just finished The Great American Supper Swap! Thank you for the refreshing godly perspectives and the reminder to seek Him in all decisions." ~Kara Stoller

"I follow your blog and Facebook updates, have read your book. You are an inspiration. What I appreciate most about you is that you are real. I love your honesty, your humor, and your love for our Lord." ~Tina Burkhart

"Since you spoke at our women's conference, I have witnessed definable spiritual progress in the lives of the women who heard you share from your heart about loving God and being a mom." ~Pastor Chuck Deglow
